Thanks. If I tell my chairs 72 hours they will not give to me in time. I need to figure out a way to word this so they don't come back and say I'm not following our by laws. I have to think k about this.

Thank you Rita.

The law requires 72 hours prior to a regular meeting. Special meetings require 24 hour notice. You provide greater notice to better accommodate your stakeholders and the public and for greater transparency, but it is not required.

Hi Rita

I'm not in the office and had to go to my mom's. I need to send a board member a reminder for her board member agenda for next week's meeting and I want to make sure I email her correctly...I have to post board agendas one week in advance as I've been doing?

Thanks

Rafik
